Re: United States v. Bradford Wedra
Ind. No. 16 Cr. 522 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

This letter is respectfully submitted to request a modification of Mr. Wedra's conditions of release by reducing the level of electronic monitoring from home detention to curfew. With curfew in place my understanding is that Mr. Wedra still would be required to be in his residence from 7:30 p.m to 8:00 a.m. unless authorized to be away during those hours for some specific occasion. All other conditions of release remain in place. As your Honor is aware, the status of the case has evolved. The plea agreement between the parties puts the applicable guideline range in Zone B at 8 to 14 months (with the anticipated inclusion of global credit). The government and pre-trial do not object. Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

In light of the facts that (1) the original charges, which included racketeering, have been reduced to possession of contraband cigarettes, and (2) Defendant's Sentencing Guidelines range is 8-14 months, the Court agrees with the government and Pretrial Services that home confinement is no longer necessary and that a curfew of 7:30 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. is sufficient. Defendant's request is therefore GRANTED. All other bail conditions are to remain in place.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael H. Sporn
